Items of Interest from the Local Government Association (LGA)

The Local Government Association provides a list of news headlines relevant to its members. Please click the headlines below for more details.

Thursday 29 July, BBC Online: UK already undergoing disruptive climate change In the latest UK State of the Climate report, scientists have said that the UK is already undergoing disruptive climate change with increased rainfall, sunshine and temperatures.

Thursday 29 July, Express: Plans to give every home seven bins Households could end up with seven bins under plans to standardise waste collection in England from 2023 in a bid to boost recycling rates.

Saturday 31 July, Times: High streets to be a place for housing

Many shops, restaurants and cafés could disappear from high streets, with four out of five premises facing conversion into flats in an overhaul of the planning system, research commissioned by The Town and Country Planning Association suggests.

Saturday 31 July, Guardian: UK waste firm fined £1.5m for exporting household waste

The UK's largest waste company, Biffa, has been fined £1.5 million after exporting more than 1,000 tonnes of household waste marked as waste paper for recycling in India and Indonesia – in breach of a ban on sending such waste to developing countries.

Sunday 1 August, BBC Online: Heatwave risk from plans to convert shops to homes Planning reforms allowing empty shops and restaurants to be converted into homes without planning permission could lead to more people suffering from potentially deadly heatwaves, according to a report.

Monday 2 August, Mail Online: Councils face bin collection challenge due to "pingdemic" Local authorities across England are struggling to maintain some local bin collections, due to the challenges faced due to self-isolating staff members according to reports.

Tuesday 3 August, Express: Waste collections at risk due to staff shortages Refuse collectors no longer have to self-isolate if they are alerted as a close contact by the NHS coronavirus app and can isolated take a daily lateral flow test for the virus.

Tuesday 3 August, Times: MPs ready to rebel over planning reforms Conservative backbenches have warned Boris Johnson that proposals to scale down controversial planning reforms will not be enough to avert a big rebellion.

Wednesday 4 August, Times: New rules for housebuilders to crackdown on land banking New rules are being considered to crackdown on the practice of "land banking", with the potential introduction of time limits on planning approval for big developments.

5. View Planning Applications

To view the list of planning applications that have recently been submitted to the Council, please visit the authority's on-line Planning Application Search.

The system will provide a range of information on current and decided applications since 1948, including a brief description of the development, reference number, decision and the date of decision. More recent applications show the name and telephone number of the council officer who is dealing with the application.

Search results are presented in a collection of pages, the number of which depends on the number of results your search produces. There are navigation tools to allow you to browse your results.

Executive Decisions Taken Since Wednesday ...

In accordance with the Access to Information Procedure Rules in Part 4 of the Council's Constitution, any executive decision shall be published normally within five days of being made. That record will bear the date on which it is published and will specify that the decision will come into force, and may then be implemented, on the expiry of 5 working days after the publication of the decision, unless called in for review by the Chairman of the Scrutiny and Overview Committee or by any five other councillors.

A list of decisions currently within the call-in period is available on the Council's website.

The call in procedure is set out in full in Part 4 of the Council's Constitution, 'Scrutiny and Overview Committee Procedure Rules'.

Forward Plan of Key Decisions

Agenda Item 2

A14 Cambridge to Huntingdon, Cambridgeshire: major improvements

We are currently carrying out finishing works for which we need to close lanes or carriageways on the A1, A14 and some local roads at times, usually overnight between 9pm and 6am, unless otherwise stated. A clearly signed diversion route will always be in place for closures.

For this week, the planned closures are:

Full closures

Friday 6 9pm to Monday 9 6am (57 hours)

• B1514 Brampton Road between Scholars Avenue and Edison Bell Way

Vehicles on the Huntingdon town centre side will be diverted onto the ring road, St Peters Road to A141 west to Brampton / Brampton Racecourse junction and into Brampton via B1514.

Vehicles on the Brampton side of the closure will follow this diversion in reverse.

Please note, pedestrian & cyclist access will remain via the northern footpath on Brampton Road

Saturday 7 6am to Monday 9 6am (48 hours)

• A14 westbound Godmanchester junction 23 entry slip

Vehicles will be diverted east on the A1307 to Swavesey and join the A14 westbound at Swavesey junction 24. Vehicles can also travel south on A1198 to A428 westbound, A1 northbound and join the A14 via Brampton Hut at New Ellington junction 21

Please be aware there will be 2-way traffic lights on the A1198 at this location to facilitate the surfacing and lining work
