Consultation Record below all parties consulted in relation to the decision.
a) Consultation between officers within the Council The opportunity has been provided for specialist officers within the Council to comment on the pre-submission draft of the neighbourhood plan in particular officers in the Development Management Team, the Built and Natural Environment Consultancy Unit officers who at a future date may be required to use the policies within a made plan for determining planning applications in the parish Waterbeach. Housing policy officers have also be consulted on the housing allocation policies proposed by the Neighbourhood Plan. b) Consultation with the Planning Lead Member The response set out in Appendix A has been shared with and agreed by the Planning Lead Member.

Final decision	Reason(s)
That the Joint Director for Planning and Economic, having liaised with the Planning Lead Member agrees the response to the pre- submission consultation on the Waterbeach Neighbourhood Plan by South Cambridgeshire District Council as set out in Appendix A.	The Council has a duty to support parish councils preparing neighbourhood plans and is keen to support these local communities so that their plan is successful at examination.
