- (a) escalate resolution to the respective Chief Executives of each of the Parties, or such other senior officers of the Parties as the respective Chief Executives may nominate; or
 - (b) refer the matter to external mediation, the costs of which shall be borne by the Parties in equal shares. Alternatively, such a reference may be made in the event that escalation pursuant to clause 20.2(b) fails to achieve resolution within sixty (60) days of the matter first being notified to the respective Chief Executives or their respective nominees.
- 20.3 In respect of any reference to mediation pursuant to clause 20.2(b):
- (a) the performance of the Agreement shall not be suspended, cease or be delayed by any reference of a dispute to mediation;
 - (b) if the Parties cannot agree on the choice of mediator within fourteen (14) days of the decision to refer, they shall apply for such mediator to be appointed by the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution ("CEDR");

- (c) if considered appropriate, the Parties may at any stage seek assistance from CEDR to provide guidance on a suitable procedure for the conduct of any mediation.
 - (d) if mediation produces agreement on the resolution of the dispute, the agreement shall be reduced to writing and shall be binding on the Parties once it is signed by their duly authorised representatives; and
 - (e) if the Parties fail to reach agreement through mediation within sixty (60) days of the Mediator being appointed, or such longer period as may be agreed by the Parties, then any dispute or difference between them may be referred to the Courts or, by agreement between the Parties, to binding arbitration.
- 20.4 No legal or arbitration proceedings shall be instituted by any Party until the procedures in clauses 20.1 and (where instituted) clause 20.2 have been completed, but nothing in this clause 20 shall prevent the Parties from seeking from any court of the competent jurisdiction an interim order restraining another Party from doing any act or compelling another Party to do any act where it apprehends reasonably and in good faith that such an interim order shall be necessary to avoid material damage to its reputation or business, or to avoid breach of its legal obligations, or to preserve any rights of action it may have.
