We are a Boutique hotel, we have Zero tolerance for unsocial behavior the managements & staff are well trained to spot that, type of our guests who uses our establishment tend to be professional & to certain age group, we dot allow any unaccompanied children to the premises .

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

As mentioned above the team are well trained to prevent & deal with, we also have a state of art 24h cctv which the recording last up to a month at the time and work closely with local police we also constantly reviewing our due diligence. Any Disorderly guests will be asked to leave the premises and barred from the premises, to control our capacity all our booking are staggered to avoid overcrowding & due to covid -19 all indoor & Outdoor seating area are social distanced, we also have Challenge 25 scheme , guests will be asked a proof of ID prior to serving, finally we have not & do not run any irresponsible drink promotions .

c) Public safety

Health & safety for our team & guests are our first priority , we do also carry a public liability insurance & work closely with local Authority to ensure that, we have carried extensive Fire & Electrical Risk assessment which was carried by a reputable & professional company with all recommendation have been implemented, we also carried out a premises risk assessment as accident prevention to our guests & staff alike we also have staggered booking policy to avoid overcrowding.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

There will be signs asking our guests to leave the premises quietly on departure and respect our neighbors, also 99% of our guests will leave via their cars as we have a large car park, we have positioned our small speakers which plays background soft music are position away from our next neighbors & to control the noise level we have purchased a decibel equipment to control noise level as permitted by the authority & local council, if any our guests make loud noise they will be asked by the managements to turn it down & respect our neighbors & other Failing they will asked to leave the premises, for outdoor last orders for food would be 21.00pm , drinks last order would be 22.30 pm where all our guests would be informed to leave the premises quietly and no later than 23.00pm.

We Currently run challenge 25 scheme & my team are well trained to ensure children are not served alcoholic beverages proof of ID will be required , all children using the premises must be accompanied by an adults, we also have age limitation under 18 where a proof of ID will be required prior to serving alcoholic beverage failing that they will be refused serving, we always ensure we have enough staff for any children events to ensure there safety & well being in case of an emergency, on our premises we do not display or show any adult contents as we are not that type of business rather more a Boutique hotel
