8. Updates on items that are of particular note

a. Stapleford: Breach of Enforcement Notice on land adjacent to Hill Trees, Babraham Road.

Work still in progress regarding legal action relating to the current breach of enforcement. Additional concern noted since the March report regarding the stationing of a mobile home on the nursery land section and the importation of brick rubble to form a track to link the upper field to the main residence. Assessment to the Planning Contravention response and the site inspection 10th May 2013 has confirmed the breach of planning control relating to the engineering operation to the new track, and breaches relating to the planning enforcement notices. A report to the planning committee was prepared and submitted. The Committee authorised officers to apply to the Court for an Injunction under Section 187B of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990. Members agreed the reasons for the application as being the desire to protect and enhance the character and amenity of the immediate countryside and the setting of Cambridge, Stapleford and Great Shelford in view of the site's prominent location, and the need to address highway safety issues arising from access to the site directly from the A1307

The draft statements supporting the proposed proceedings have now been considered by Counsel with further information and authorisations being requested in order that the Injunction application can be submitted.

In May 2014, Committee resolved to give officers the authority sought and further work on compiling supportive evidence undertaken since. Periodic inspections of the land have been carried out, most lately in April 2015 (confirming occupation has not ceased, and that breaches of control are continuing and consolidating). Statements accordingly being revised and finalised to reflect; injunction proceedings still appropriate and proportionate to pursue
A claim against the occupier of the land in which the Council is seeking a planning injunction has now been issued in the High Court

Additionally a further permission granted at appeal for plots 4 & 5 Pine Lane 30th August 2012 under reference APP/W0530/A/12/2170121 has also lapsed due to planning conditions contained in the appeal decision not being complied with/met. A planning application for plots 4/5 has been submitted but not validated. An application for the remaining plots in Pine Lane, 1, 2, 3 & 6 is in the process of being submitted.

Valid planning applications relating to plots 1-6 inclusive have not been received as requested therefore a file has been submitted to legal requesting the issue of a planning enforcement notice. Notices have now been issued and are effective from 21st March 2014

f. North Hall Farm, Barley Road Heydon

A change in use (after conversion) of a single storey building to three self-contained residential units in occupation, or being made available for occupation as permanent dwellings A planning permission was granted in 2010 for the proposed change of use of the building then described as stables to holiday homes, subject to conditions The council considers the permission has lapsed. The case which was subsequently prosecuted and resulted in an appeal hearing at the Court of Appeal Criminal Division The Appellant's main ground of appeal was that the planning permission had the effect of allowing permanent residential use because 'holiday let' was not defined and condition 3 did not require compliance with the scheme. Further that under the use classes order, planning permission was not required to change from holiday let to residential use and that s.180 TCPA 1990 applied. She noted that pursuant to s.57 TCPA 1990, planning permission is required for development and the changing of any material use. The permitted use had been for farm offices not residential use. The Planning Inspector rejected the use as residential accommodation. Mrs, Justice Lang reading judgment on behalf of the Justices, dismissed the appeal There was an order for costs of £3,500 in respect of Counsel's fees for the Appeal. Arrangements to claim fees and disbursements incurred in the Crown Court and POCA proceedings at the sentencing / POCA hearing will be made
